

NEWTON'S THIRD LAW

Javier Marquina & Víctor Solana

+18

Eneas and Belit have fun at one more party. Eneas is the only superman on the planet and he's tired of it. He could throw the Earth against the Sun, but he prefers to get depressed and get high. Belit loves him madly, so she lets herself be loved by an idiot-looking guy who's also at the sarao. Everything seems normal, but what begins as a simple fooling around, will eventually trigger events that will lead to the most epic and destructive confrontation in history.
